

Dancing Elephants and Floating Continents: The Story of Canada Beneath Your Feet

By John Wilson

2005 Hackmatack Children's Choice Book Award

Explore the story of Earth's formation in this award-winning book by children's author and geologist, John Wilson. Thanks to the internationally renowned, Canadian-run scientific program called Lithoprobe—and its giant earth-pounding trucks known as Dancing Elephants—we now know more than ever about the events that led up to the creation of the world as we know it. Including hands-on activities and experiments to help your students understand how Earth's major evolutionary changes have occurred, Dancing Elephants and Floating Continents is an excellent addition to your Grade 7 Mining Matters II –The Earth's Crust resource. Complete with continents that crash and crush, oceans that vanish and reappear, and mountain ranges that rise and crumble, this is an adventure story that is sure to amaze your class!
