

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS

In conjunction with

PDAC 2010: INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION, TRADE SHOW & INVESTORS EXCHANGE MARCH 7 – 10, 2010

The PDAC's annual convention is the world's premier meeting of mineral explorationists, developers, investors, corporate and investment bankers, financiers, analysts and government representatives.

PDAC offers students a unique opportunity to volunteer their time in exchange for a free convention registration AND a ticket to the Mineral Outlook Luncheon or the PDAC-CIM Luncheon.

Convention Ambassadors – sponsored by IAMGOLD Corporation

When: 2-four hour shifts during the convention (see available shifts on registration form)

Where: PDAC International Convention, Metro Toronto Convention Centre, South Building

What: Ambassadors will greet delegates and assist them in navigating the convention. You will be assigned 2-four hour shifts of your choice from Sunday, March 7 – Wednesday March 10. To participate, you must be available to attend 1-hour orientation session on Sunday, March 7 (8:30 am or 12:00 noon) at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre. A t-shirt, hat, food voucher, volunteer certificate and student registration materials will be provided to each volunteer.

To sign up, please complete the attached registration form and return it to our Volunteer Coordinator, Stefanie Wolf, at volunteer@pdac.ca. You will be contacted with details about your participation.

When choosing your shift availability, please note the times of the following student events you may wish to take part in:
